Part II English

A. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

I have a confession to make. In my early teens, I ran with the sort of crowd that is every parent's nightmare. We did some minor mischief before moving on to petty crime. For a while, shoplifting at the mall was our Saturday afternoon pastime. One day, I got caught stealing record albums. I won't tire you with the details just now. I'll only say that I was more skillful as a liar than as a thief.

Two store detectives, both middle-aged women, hauled me off to the department store's interrogation room. I must have looked pitiful. I was thirteen, but I looked about ten. One of the detectives looked at me and said, "You look too young to steal. Did you steal those albums for yourself?"

		My Tree
		- Garnet Engle
		O tree, so big and stout and strong
		You've lived so very, very long,
		A hundred years or more, I'm told
		And yet you're not so very old.
		A hundred secrets you could tell
		Of children whom you love so well,
		Who came and sat beneath your shade
		Or underneath your branches played.
		A hundred birds have built their nest;
		Your leaves have softly kissed their breas	sts;
		Your branches seem to touch the sky,
		Yet you were once as small as I.
		Some day when I have grown up, too.
		I'm coming back to visit you;
		And changed though other things will be	,
		I'll find same dear friendly tree.

True, it is the function of the army to maintain law and order in abnormal times. But in normal times there is another force that compels citizens to obey the laws and to act with due regard to the rights of others. The force also protects the lives and the properties of law abiding men. Laws are made to secure the personal safety of its subjects and to prevent murder and crimes of violence. They are made to secure the property of the citizens against theft and damage to protect the rights of communities and castes to carry out their customs and ceremonies, so long as they do not conflict with the rights of others. Now the good citizen, of his own free will obey these laws and he takes care that everything he does is done with due regard to the rights and well-being of others. But the bad citizen is only restrained from breaking these laws by fear of the consequence of his actions. And the necessary steps to compel the bad citizen to act as a good citizen are taken by this force. The supreme control of law and order in a State is in the hands of a Minister who is responsible to the State Assembly and acts through the Inspector General of Police (IGP).

B. Read the passage and answer the questions 70 - 75 that follow

I tried a smile-there was no response. I offered the customary gifts-he waved them aside. I tried the few words I knew-and with a gesture of dignity and scorn he handed me a present, a solitary egg; white and chilled it nestled in my palm. I smiled again but even I felt that my smiles had become mechanical. There was obviously nothing for it: I would have to put on my little act, which in my opinion is worth a whole Platoon of Assam Rifles as a safety measure. I removed my dentures. There was a roar of interest and excitement from the crowd. I put them back. Another roar. After I had conducted this humiliating performance several times, there was at least a reaction. The Chief's lips began to twitch, and finally he broke into a hearty laugh. Pointing to his grey hair, he declared, 'I am an old man too' and soon he was sitting beside me very affably.
